

A Bridge to a New Beginning

Cervizzi & Associates offers compassionate advocacy to families through difficult times

Attorney Laura Cervizzi realizes that it's not easy for her clients to pick up the phone and give her an initial call.

"It takes a lot of courage to make the phone call and schedule an appointment," says Cervizzi, an attorney concentrating in divorce and family law.

Cervizzi, a former Assistant District Attorney for Middlesex County, has more than 25 years of experience practicing law. She began her firm in North Reading in 2002 after working at the prominent Boston family law firm White, Inker, Aronson, P.C.

Today, the prestigious Cervizzi & Associates has a team of attorneys and paralegals, in addition to an extensive support staff. The firm also has offices in Boston and Beverly.

The Cervizzi & Associates team offers a wealth of knowledge and extensive expertise in all areas of family law and divorce, including child custody, child support and alimony. These service areas also extend to include parental rights, grandparents' rights, restraining orders, prenuptial and postnuptial agreements, adoption, cohabitation agreements, and reproductive law. Two attorneys are also trained mediators.

Cervizzi and her team serve all of Massachusetts and have clients from many counties across the state.

The attorneys take pride in being compassionate and giving unparalleled attention to each and every one of their clients.

Attorney Laura J. Cervizzi and her team are committed to helping their clients move to the next chapter of their lives.

The team of lawyers at Cervizzi & Associates has extensive background and proven experience in all aspects of family law and divorce.

From the client's initial communication with the firm, a client's whole experience is focused on making him or her at ease during a difficult time in their life.

"We want to make the person as comfortable as we can," office manager Priscilla Garrity says.

"Nobody wants a divorce. It's a difficult call to make," Cervizzi agrees.

However, once a client makes the decision to move forward and hire the firm, Cervizzi says, it is her firm's job to work hard and to educate the client on the entire process and apprise them of their rights. The firm is committed to giving personal attention to each client. A client's expectations are managed at the beginning of a case.

After the initial consult, Cervizzi says, "If the client's last words are, 'I feel so much better now,' then I have done my job."

The firm's attorneys are constantly available to their clients, helping them to navigate through the legal system and working as their advocates.

"We're very hands-on from the beginning to the end," Cervizzi says. "We listen to a client's story and what they want out of their divorce for themselves and their family." The firm represents an equal amount of men and women, Cervizzi says, adding mothers' and fathers' rights are equally important.

Cervizzi & Associates' offices are designed to provide clients a warm and comfortable environment to ease some of the challenges they face in their lives.

The metaphor Attorney Cervizzi has chosen for the firm, as depicted on the website, is that of a bridge. It symbolizes a client having to move from their present life to a new life. Our firm will be the bridge to a new beginning.
